

An Act relating to public buildings; creating the Deferred Maintenance and Construction Needs Task Force; establishing membership; providing for certain appointments; providing for meetings; providing for reimbursement; providing for staffing; providing for study; requiring state agencies to furnish certain information; requiring a report; providing for noncodification; and providing an effective date.