

An Act relating to public finance; prohibiting contracts for certain computer software unless the source code is provided; requiring certain documentation; directing the State Purchasing Director to provide advice and assistance; providing definitions; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.