

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; creating the Oklahoma Funeral Protection Act; providing short title; stating legislative findings; stating purpose; defining terms; making certain conduct unlawful; providing for punishment; providing civil remedies; providing for authority of certain counties and municipalities to determine sites for picketing and demonstrations; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.