

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; prohibiting certain uses of the names or pictures of service members of the United States Armed Forces; providing penalty; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.