

An Act relating to professions and occupations; authorizing specific actions of pharmacists; providing remedy under certain circumstances; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.