

An Act relating to damages; creating the Guidelines for Punitive Damages Act; providing short title; allowing appellate review of certain damage award; requiring appellate court to make certain determination; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.