

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring promulgation of rules for certain pilot program for specified recipients; further defining recipients of services; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.