

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating the Hospital Infections Disclosure Act; providing short title; defining terms; specifying certain duties of individual hospitals, Commissioner of Health and State Department of Health; requiring certain reports; requiring Commissioner of Health to appoint advisory committee; providing for membership and duties thereof; granting certain discretion to Department; specifying requirement for certain reports; providing for availability of report; prohibiting disclosure of certain information; stating legislative intent; providing penalties; providing for enforcement; amending 63 O.S. 2001, Section 1-706, which relates to hospitals; modifying grounds for suspension or revocation of certain licenses; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.