

An Act relating to public finance; requiring apportionment of certain funds to schools under specified circumstances; prescribing the manner of apportionment; providing methodology for determination of amount to be apportioned; defining term; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.