

An Act relating to state retirement systems; providing benefit increase for members of certain state retirement systems; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.