

An Act relating to the Department of Human Services; making an appropriation; stating purpose; requiring budgeting in certain categories and amounts; requiring certain performance measures; providing for exemptions from certain expenditure limitations; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; and providing an effective date.