

An Act relating to criminal procedure; creating the Oklahoma Innocence Commission; stating purpose of Commission; stating composition of Commission; designating length of terms; providing for travel reimbursement; directing certain staff to assist Commission; establishing duties and powers of Commission; requiring certain report; requiring response to report within specified time period; prohibiting use of report as evidence in certain proceedings; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.