

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; prohibiting certain entities from prohibiting certain substances or materials on public property; providing certain exceptions; making certain rules and policies unenforceable; setting misdemeanor penalty; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.