

An Act relating to cable television systems; amending 11 O.S. 2001, Section 22-107.1, which relates to granting of franchises for cable television systems; allowing municipalities to make certain requirements in awarding initial or renewal franchises; allowing operators to provide certain services; providing construction; defining term; and providing an effective date.