

An Act relating to controlled substances; criminalizing the import, transportation or storage of certain substances; stating penalty; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.