

An Act relating to juveniles; requiring identification of educational needs of certain children within certain time; directing certain educational opportunities while in certain facilities; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.