

An Act relating to public health and safety; stating powers and duties of certain office; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.