

An Act relating to labor; defining terms; providing penalties for noncompliance with certain laws relating to the use of credit reports by employers when hiring employees; providing certain duty for Commissioner of Labor; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.