

An Act relating to corrections; limiting certain court orders to general services; prohibiting the court from ordering any specific program or service; directing offenders be assigned to most appropriate programs and services by the Department; requiring programs and services be prioritized based on resources and offender risk and needs; providing programs and services use least restrictive and least costly to meet offender needs; directing the Administrative Director of the Courts to develop certain form for use by sentencing judge; construing certain authority for sentencing; making certain court orders unenforceable against the Department; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.