

An Act relating to corrections; creating a Pilot Drug Court Reentry Program; limiting duration of certain program; setting minimal eligibility criteria; requiring rural and metropolitan sites; making certain program subject to state appropriations; limiting number of participants; authorizing only parolees during first year of operation; directing certain agencies to make site selections and determine final eligibility criteria; prohibiting supplanting of existing services or opportunities; construing obligation of certain agencies to provide certain services; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.