

An Act relating to professions and occupations; requiring all entities charged with oversight of occupational licenses to establish certain procedures for certain licensure reinstatement; stating who are eligible to apply for certain reinstatement; prohibiting refusal of reinstatement for certain convictions or pleadings; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.