

An Act relating to ethics; prohibiting certain persons from making or accepting campaign contributions during certain period of time; specifying circumstances where contribuion considered to be received; providing that act not apply to certain contributions; providing penalties; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.