

An Act relating to waters and water rights; providing for compensation for damages caused to municipalities or other political subdivisions as a result of certain moratorium; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.