

An Act relating to agriculture and rural economic development; making legislative findings with respect to agribusiness and rural economic development; encouraging coordination of economic development efforts; directing certain entities to establish effort for coordinated rural economic development efforts; providing for noncodification; and providing an effective date.