

An Act relating to poor persons; requiring the Department of Human Services to increase certain reimbursement rate; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.