

An Act relating to public health and safety; stating legislative intent and findings; prohibiting physician from performing abortions, with exceptions; stating contents of certain statement; providing for specified statement in lieu of certain statement; stating factors one must certify to in lieu of statement; requiring the State Department of Health to develop specified forms and requiring distribution; providing penalties; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.