

An Act relating to consumer credit code; requiring certain creditors to provide specified information to certain debtors; specifying type of information and schedule for transmittal; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.