

An Act relating to insurance; authorizing certain companies to invest in certain property; specifying uses of certain property; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.