

An Act relating to poor persons; providing for proportionate rate increases for home health care and adult day care facilities under certain circumstances; providing for promulgation of rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.