

A Concurrent Resolution urging the President of the United States and Congress to take certain steps to secure the nation's borders and adequately fund and equip certain entities; and directing distribution.