

State government; allowing for certain persons to continue certain health coverage;
effective date; emergency.