A Resolution congratulating the Heritage Hall Varsity Boys Golf team for winning the 2008 Class 3A State Championship; commending their perseverance; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, the Heritage Hall Varsity Boys Golf team placed fifth three years ago, and placed third the last two years in the state tournament. In 2008, the Chargers won all but three tournaments, including Regionals at Kingfisher and State at Cimarron Trails in Perkins, and emerged as the Class 3A Boys State Golf Champions. With only one senior on its 2008 roster and all five starters returning, Heritage Hall will be favored to win the State Championship again next year; and

WHEREAS, Heritage Hall athletic programs strive to cultivate a family-oriented atmosphere in which students learn the value of hard work. The Heritage Hall sports program seeks to provide students with memories and lessons that last a lifetime, including learning that fair and rigorous competition enhances character by promoting the will to prepare thoroughly, the composure to perform with grace under pressure, and the determination to overcome adversity. The benefits of athletics extend beyond the playing field, providing a blueprint for lifelong success; and

WHEREAS, Heritage Hall is a member of the Oklahoma Secondary School Activities Association (OSSAA). The Chargers' colors are navy blue and Vegas gold; their motto is: "To Learn, To Lead, To Serve"; and their symbol is a burning torch with the letters "HH".

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE 2ND SESSION OF THE 51ST OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate hereby congratulates the Heritage Hall Varsity Boys Golf team for winning the 2008 Class 3A State Championship.

THAT the Oklahoma State Senate commends the Chargers Varsity Boys Golf team for its perseverance during the last three years and wishes them continued success in the future.

THAT a copy of this resolution be distributed to Heritage Hall Golf Coach Andy Bogert and Assistant Coach Parker Tate.

Adopted by the Senate the 23rd day of May, 2008.
