6 2. If a parent is permanently physically or mentally 7 incapacitated, the child support obligation shall be computed on the 8 basis of actual monthly gross income.

9 D. Imputed income.

10 1. Instead of using the actual or average income of a parent,
11 the court may impute gross income to a parent under the provisions
12 of this section if equitable.

13 2. The following factors may be considered by the court when 14 making a determination of willful and voluntary underemployment or 15 unemployment:

- 16 a. whether a parent has been determined by the court to 17 be willfully or voluntarily underemployed or 18 unemployed, including whether unemployment or 19 underemployment for the purpose of pursuing additional 20 training or education is reasonable in light of the 21 obligation of the parent to support his or her 22 children and, to this end, whether the training or 23 education will ultimately benefit the child in the 24 case immediately under consideration by increasing the

1 parent's level of support for that child in the 2 future,

- 3 b. when there is no reliable evidence of income,
- 4 c. the past and present employment of the parent,
- 5 d. the education, training, and ability to work of the 6 parent,
- 7 e. the lifestyle of the parent, including ownership of 8 valuable assets and resources, whether in the name of 9 the parent or the current spouse of the parent, that 10 appears inappropriate or unreasonable for the income
11 claimed by the parent,
- 12 f. the role of the parent as caretaker of a handicapped
13 or seriously ill child of that parent, or any other 14 handicapped or seriously ill relative for whom that 15 parent has assumed the role of caretaker which 16 eliminates or substantially reduces the ability of the 17 parent to work outside the home, and the need of that 18 parent to continue in that role in the future, or
- 19 g. any additional factors deemed relevant to the 20 particular circumstances of the case.

21 E. Self-employment income.

22 1. Income from self-employment includes income from, but not 23 limited to, business operations, work as an independent contractor
24 or consultant, sales of goods or services, and rental properties,

1 less ordinary and reasonable expenses necessary to produce such 2 income.

3 2. A determination of business income for tax purposes shall 4 not control for purposes of determining a child support obligation.
5 Amounts allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for accelerated
6 depreciation or investment tax credits shall not be considered
7 reasonable expenses.

8 3. The district or administrative court shall deduct from self-
9 employment gross income an amount equal to the employer contribution
10 for F.I.C.A. tax which an employer would withhold from an employee's 11 earnings on an equivalent gross income amount.

12 F. Fringe benefits.

13 1. Fringe benefits for inclusion as income or in-kind 14 remuneration received by a parent in the course of employment, or 15 operation of a trade or business, shall be counted as income if they 16 significantly reduce personal living expenses.

17 2. Such fringe benefits might include, but are not limited to,
18 company car, housing, or room and board.

19 3. Basic Allowance for Housing, Basic Allowance for 20 Subsistence, and Variable Housing Allowances for service members are 21 considered income for the purposes of determining child support.

22 4. Fringe benefits do not include employee benefits that are 23 typically added to the salary, wage, or other compensation that a 24 parent may receive as a standard added benefit, such as employer

1 contributions to portions of health insurance premiums or employer
2 contributions to a retirement or pension plan.

3 G. Social Security Title II benefits.

4 1. Social Security Title II benefits received by a child shall 5 be included as income to the parent on whose account the benefit of 6 the child is drawn and applied against the support obligation
7 ordered to be paid by that parent. If the benefit of the child is 8 drawn from the disability of the child, the benefit of the child is 9 not added to the income of either parent and not deducted from the 10 obligation of either parent.

11 2. Child support greater than social security benefit.

12 If the child support award due after calculating the child
13 support guidelines is greater than the social security benefit 14 received on behalf of the child, the obligor shall be required to 15 pay the amount exceeding the social security benefit as part of the 16 child support award in the case.

17 3. Child support equal to or less than social security
18 benefits.

19 a. If the child support award due after calculating the 20 child support guidelines is less than or equal to the 21 social security benefit received on behalf of the 22 child, the child support obligation of that parent is 23 met and no additional child support amount must be 24 paid by that parent.

1 b. Any social security benefit amounts which are greater 2 than the support ordered by the court shall be
3 retained by the caretaker for the benefit of the child
4 and shall not be used as a reason for decreasing the 5 child support order or reducing arrearages.

6 c. The child support computation form shall include a
7 notation regarding the use of social security benefits 8 as offset.

9 4. a. Calculation of child support as provided in subsection
10 F of this section shall be effective no earlier than 11 the date on which the motion to modify was filed.

12 b. The court may determine if, under the circumstances of 13 the case, it is appropriate to credit social security
14 benefits paid to the custodial person prior to a
15 modification of child support against the past-due 16 child support obligation of the noncustodial parent.

17 c. The noncustodial parent shall not receive credit for 18 any social security benefits paid directly to the 19 child.

20 d. Any credit granted by the court pursuant to 21 subparagraph b of this paragraph shall be limited to 22 the time period during which the social security
23 benefit was paid, or the time period covered by a lump
24 sum for past social security benefits.

1 H. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Department
2 shall neither make application to the Veterans Administration for 3 garnishment or assignment of wages from any type of service related 4 injury compensation or combat related disability compensation for 5 purposes of assisting in the care of a child, nor shall the 6 Department include such pay as income defined pursuant to this 7 section when calculating child support payment obligations.

8 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2010.
