6 AS INTRODUCED

7 An Act relating to Workers' Compensation; amending 85
8 O.S. 2001, Section 1.2, which relates to the Workers'
9 Compensation Court; modifying positions of the Court;
10 establishing permanent assignments; requiring certain
11 confirmation; and providing an effective date.

12 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

13 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 85 O.S. 2001, Section 1.2, is 14 amended to read as follows:

15 Section 1.2. A. There is hereby created the Workers'
16 Compensation Court which shall consist of ~~ten (10)~~ seven (7) judges.
17 Each judge of the Court shall be appointed to a designated numbered
18 position on the Court. The positions shall be numbered one through 19 ~~ten~~ seven, four of which shall be permanently assigned to the 20 Oklahoma City Workers' Compensation Court and three of which shall 21 be permanently assigned to the Tulsa Workers' Compensation Court.

22 The initial terms of the judges by position number shall expire on 23 the following dates:

24 ~~Position 1 shall expire 7-1-84.~~

1 ~~Position 2 shall expire 7-1-84.~~

2 ~~Position 3 shall expire 7-1-84.~~

3 Position 4 shall expire 7-1-82.

4 Position 5 shall expire 7-1-82.

5 Position 6 shall expire 7-1-80.

6 Position 7 shall expire 7-1-80.

7 Position 8 shall expire 7-1-88.

8 Position 9 shall expire 7-1-88.

9 Position 10 shall expire 7-1-96 after being appointed under the 10 provisions hereinafter set forth effective September 1, 1993.

11 Thereafter, each position shall be filled by a judge appointed
12 to serve a six-year term.

13 Provided the judges serving unexpired terms on the State
14 Industrial Court shall serve on the Workers' Compensation Court
15 until their terms expire only as provided herein. The judges of the 16 State Industrial Court whose terms expire March 14, 1979, shall
17 serve in Positions 6 and 7 until that date, and the judge whose term
18 expires March 14, 1981, shall serve in Position 5 until that date.

19 Upon expiration of these terms, the Governor shall appoint judges to 20 serve the remainder of the initial terms designated in this section.

21 When a vacancy on the Court occurs or is certain to occur or for 22 initial appointments to the Court, the Judicial Nominating

23 Commission shall choose and submit to the Governor and the Chief

24 Justice of the Supreme Court the names of three persons, in addition

1 to the name of the incumbent judge, if any, for each appointment,
2 each of whom has previously notified the Commission in writing that
3 he or she will serve as a judge if appointed. The Governor shall 4 appoint one of the nominees to fill the vacancy which shall be
5 subject to confirmation by a majority of the Senate, but if the 6 Governor fails to do so within sixty (60) days, the Chief Justice of 7 the Supreme Court shall appoint one of the nominees which shall be
8 subject to confirmation by a majority of the Senate, the appointment
9 to be certified to the Secretary of State. If the Senate is not in 10 session when the appointment is made, the Senate must confirm such 11 appointment during its next regular session. If the Senate fails to 12 confirm such appointment, the Governor shall ask the Judicial 13 Nominating Commission for the names of three persons, which shall 14 not include the name of the candidate not confirmed, and shall 15 submit a new candidate to the Senate for confirmation within thirty
16 (30) days of receipt of such nominees.

17 B. A judge of the Court shall have been licensed to practice
18 law in this state for a period of not less than five (5) years prior 19 to appointment. Each judge, before entering upon the duties of 20 office, shall take and subscribe to an oath of office and file the 21 same with the Secretary of State. Each judge shall continue to 22 serve until his or her successor has been appointed and qualified.
23 A judge shall be eligible for reappointment, provided that the judge
24

1 may be removed for cause by the Court on the Judiciary prior to the 2 expiration of his or her term.

3 C. Each judge shall receive a salary equal to that paid to a
4 district judge of this state, and shall devote full time to his or
5 her duties and shall not engage in the private practice of law
6 during the term in office.

7 D. The Governor shall appoint from among the judges of the 8 Workers' Compensation Court a presiding judge of that Court who 9 shall serve for a two-year term commencing with the initial 10 appointment beginning January 1, 1987. Any judge so appointed shall 11 not serve more than two times in succession. The presiding judge
12 shall preside at all hearings held by the Court, preside at such 13 meetings of the judges of the Court as may be necessary and perform
14 such other supervisory duties as the needs of the Court may require.
15 The presiding judge may designate one of the other judges to act as 16 presiding judge in his or her place whenever necessary during the 17 disqualification, disability, or absence of the presiding judge.
18 During the disqualification, disability, or absence of the presiding
19 judge, the acting presiding judge shall exercise all of the powers
20 of the presiding judge.

21 E. The Court shall have the authority to adopt reasonable rules
22 within its respective areas of responsibility including the rules of 23 procedure for the Court en banc, after notice and public hearing, 24 for effecting the purposes of the Workers' Compensation Act. All of

1 the judges of the Court shall be present at all meetings wherein
2 rules are adopted or amended. All rules, upon adoption, shall be
3 submitted to the Supreme Court, which shall either approve or 4 disapprove them within thirty (30) days. All rules, upon approval
5 by the Supreme Court, shall be published and be made available to 6 the public and, if not inconsistent with the law, shall be binding
7 in the administration of the Workers' Compensation Act.

8 F. The Court is hereby designated and confirmed as a court of 9 record, with respect to any matter within the limits of its 10 jurisdiction, and within such limits the judges thereof shall 11 possess the powers and prerogatives of the judges of the other 12 courts of record of this state, including the power to punish for 13 contempt those persons who disobey a subpoena, or refuse to be sworn 14 or to answer as a witness, when lawfully ordered to do so.

15 G. The principal office of the Court shall be situated in the 16 City of Oklahoma City in quarters assigned by the Department of 17 Central Services. The Court may hold hearings in any city of this 18 state.

19 H. All county commissioners and presiding district judges of 20 this state shall make quarters available for the conducting of 21 hearings by a judge of the Court upon request by the Court.

22 I. The judges of the Court shall determine the qualifications
23 necessary for the job of Administrator. Said qualifications shall 24

1 be submitted to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for approval,
2 disapproval or modification.

3 J. Judges of the Workers' Compensation Court may punish for 4 direct contempt pursuant to Sections 565, 565.1 and 566 of Title 21
5 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

6 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2009.
