Bill Summary

Research Analyst: Marcia Goff

The Conference Committee Substitute for SB 2235 requires that in a court proceeding regarding child custody or visitation, a motion for an emergency custody hearing include either a police report or a report from the Department of Human Services that the child is in surroundings that have or could endanger the child's welfare. If there is no such report, the bill requires that the motion include a notarized affidavit from an individual with personal knowledge of the surroundings of the child and provides for reimbursement of court costs in the event information in the affidavit was false. The bill also establishes qualifications for judicial district parenting coordinators.
