24 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

1 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be
2 codified in the Oklahoma Statutes reads as follows:

3 This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Wounded Warrior
4 Protection Act".

5 SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 121, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7 Section 121. A. When a divorce is granted, the decree shall 8 restore:

9 1. To the wife her maiden or former name, if her name was 10 changed as a result of the marriage and if she so desires;

11 2. To the husband his former name, if his name was changed as a 12 result of the marriage and if he so desires.

13 B. The court shall enter its decree confirming in each spouse 14 the property owned by him or her before marriage and the 15 undisposed-of property acquired after marriage by him or her in his 16 or her own right. Either spouse may be allowed such alimony out of 17 real and personal property of the other as the court shall think 18 reasonable, having due regard to the value of such property at the 19 time of the divorce. Alimony may be allowed from real or personal 20 property, or both, or in the form of money judgment, payable either 21 in gross or in installments, as the court may deem just and 22 equitable. As to such property, whether real or personal, which has 23 been acquired by the parties jointly during their marriage, whether 24 the title thereto be in either or both of said parties, the court

1 shall, subject to a valid antenuptial contract in writing, make such 2 division between the parties as may appear just and reasonable, by a 3 division of the property in kind, or by setting the same apart to 4 one of the parties, and requiring the other thereof to be paid such 5 sum as may be just and proper to effect a fair and just division
6 thereof. The court may set apart a portion of the separate estate 7 of a spouse to the other spouse for the support of the children of 8 the marriage where custody resides with that spouse.

9 C. A servicemember's portion of Special Monthly Compensation
10 (SMC) awarded by or from the United States Department of Veterans 11 Affairs for service-connected loss or loss of use of specific organs 12 or extremities shall be separate property, not divisible as a 13 marital asset nor as community property. For purposes of 14 identifying SMC, it is the sole responsibility of the servicemember 15 to prove with competent evidence what amount of his or her 16 disability compensation is SMC.

17 D. A servicemember's portion of Combat-Related Special
18 Compensation (CRSC) shall be separate property, not divisible as a 19 marital asset nor as community property, if a specific dollar amount 20 of CRSC can be proved by the servicemember as compensation for 21 combat-related loss of limb or loss of bodily function and the CRSC 22 award was applied for and established prior to the date of the 23 filing of the dissolution of marriage action.

24

1 SECTION 3. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 134, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 Section 134. A. In any divorce decree which provides for 4 periodic alimony payments, the court shall plainly state, at the 5 time of entering the original decree, the dollar amount of all or a 6 portion of each payment which is designated as support and the 7 dollar amount of all or a portion of the payment which is a payment
8 pertaining to a division of property. The court shall specify in 9 the decree that the payments pertaining to a division of property
10 shall continue until completed. Payments pertaining to a division
11 of property are irrevocable and not subject to subsequent 12 modification by the court making the award. An order for the 13 payment of money pursuant to a divorce decree, whether designated as 14 support or designated as pertaining to a division of property shall 15 not be a lien against the real property of the person ordered to 16 make such payments unless the court order specifically provides for 17 a lien on real property. An arrearage in payments of support
18 reduced to a judgment may be a lien against the real property of the 19 person ordered to make such payments.

20 B. The court shall also provide in the divorce decree that upon 21 the death or remarriage of the recipient, the payments for support, 22 if not already accrued, shall terminate. The court shall order the 23 judgment for the payment of support to be terminated, and the lien
24 released upon the presentation of proper proof of death of the

1 recipient unless a proper claim is made for any amount of past-due
2 support payments by an executor, administrator, or heir within
3 ninety (90) days from the date of death of the recipient. Upon
4 proper application the court shall order payment of support
5 terminated and the lien discharged after remarriage of the 6 recipient, unless the recipient can make a proper showing that some 7 amount of support is still needed and that circumstances have not
8 rendered payment of the same inequitable, provided the recipient
9 commences an action for such determination, within ninety (90) days
10 of the date of such remarriage.

11 C. The voluntary cohabitation of a former spouse with a member
12 of the opposite sex shall be a ground to modify provisions of a
13 final judgment or order for alimony as support. If voluntary
14 cohabitation is alleged in a motion to modify the payment of 15 support, the court shall have jurisdiction to reduce or terminate 16 future support payments upon proof of substantial change of 17 circumstances of either party to the divorce relating to need for 18 support or ability to support. As used in this subsection, the term
19 cohabitation means the dwelling together continuously and habitually
20 of a man and a woman who are in a private conjugal relationship not 21 solemnized as a marriage according to law, or not necessarily
22 meeting all the standards of a common-law marriage. The petitioner
23 shall make application for modification and shall follow
24 notification procedures used in other divorce decree modification

1 actions. The court that entered the divorce decree shall have
2 jurisdiction over the modification application.

3 D. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C of this 4 section, the provisions of any divorce decree pertaining to the 5 payment of alimony as support may be modified upon proof of changed
6 circumstances relating to the need for support or ability to support
7 which are substantial and continuing so as to make the terms of the 8 decree unreasonable to either party. Modification by the court of 9 any divorce decree pertaining to the payment of alimony as support, 10 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, may extend to the 11 terms of the payments and to the total amount awarded; provided
12 however, such modification shall only have prospective application.

13 E. In no event shall an award of alimony, whether designated 14 for support or for property division, be based on the 15 servicemember's portion of any Special Monthly Compensation (SMC)
16 award from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

17 F. Pursuant to the federal Uniformed Services Former Spouses'
18 Protection Act, 10 U.S.C., Section 1408, a court may treat
19 disposable retired or retainer pay payable to a military member
20 either as property solely of the member or as property of the member
21 and the spouse of the member. If a state court determines that the 22 disposable retired or retainer pay of a military member is marital 23 property, the court shall award an amount consistent with the rank, 24

1 pay grade, and time of service of the member at the time of
2 separation.

3 ~~F.~~ G. The provisions of subsection D of this section shall have 4 retrospective and prospective application with regards to 5 modifications for the purpose of obtaining support or payments
6 pertaining to a division of property on divorce decrees which become 7 final after June 26, 1981. There shall be a two-year statute of 8 limitations, beginning on the date of the final divorce decree, for 9 a party to apply for division of disposable retired or retainer pay.

10 ~~G.~~ H. The provisions of subsections C and D of this section 11 shall have retrospective and prospective application with regards to 12 modifications of the provisions of a final judgment or order for 13 alimony as support, or of a divorce decree pertaining to the payment
14 of alimony as support, regardless of the date that the order,
15 judgment, or decree was entered.

16 SECTION 4. It being immediately necessary for the preservation 17 of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby 18 declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and 19 be in full force from and after its passage and approval."

9 An Act relating to support payments; creating the 10 Wounded Warrior Protection Act; providing short 11 title; amending 43 O.S. 2011, Sections 118B and 134,
12 which relate to computation of income and alimony 13 payments; specifying certain property as separate 14 property; requiring certain proof; prohibiting 15 inclusion of certain benefits as income for specified 16 purpose; providing for noncodification; and providing 17 an effective date.

18 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

19 SECTION 5. NEW LAW A new section of law not to be

21 This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Wounded Warrior
22 Protection Act".

23 SECTION 6. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 118B, is 24 amended to read as follows:

Section 118B. A. As used in ~~this act~~ Section 118 et seq. of this title:

1 1. "Gross income" includes earned and passive income from any 2 source, except as excluded in this section;

5 income from:

6 a. salaries,

7 b. wages,

8 c. tips

9 d. commissions,

10 e. bonuses,

11 f. severance pay, and

12 g. military pay, including hostile fire or imminent 13 danger pay, combat pay, family separation pay, or 14 hardship duty location pay; and 15 3. "Passive income" is defined as all other income and 16 includes, but is not limited to, income from:

17 a. dividends,

18 b. pensions,

19 c. rent,

20 d. interest income,

21 e. trust income,

22 f. support alimony being received from someone other than 23 the other parent in this case,

24 g. annuities,

- 1 h. social security benefits,
- 2 i. workers' compensation benefits,
- 3 j. unemployment insurance benefits,
- 4 k. disability insurance benefits,
- 5 l. gifts,
- 6 m. prizes,
- 7 n. gambling winnings,
- 8 o. lottery winnings, and
- 9 p. royalties.

10 B. Income specifically excluded is:

11 1. Actual child support received for children not before the 12 court;

13 2. Adoption Assistance subsidy paid by the Department of Human 14 Services;

15 3. Benefits received from means-tested public assistance 16 programs including, but not limited to:

17 a. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF),

18 b. Supplemental Security Income (SSI),

19 c. Food Stamps, and

20 d. General Assistance and State Supplemental Payments for 21 Aged, Blind and the Disabled;

22 4. The income of the child from any source, including, but not 23 limited to, trust income and social security benefits drawn on the 24 disability of the child; and

1 5. Payments received by the parent for the care of foster
2 children.

3 C. 1. For purposes of computing gross income of the parents, 4 gross income shall include for each parent whichever is the most 5 equitable of:

6 a. all actual monthly income described in this section, 7 plus such overtime and supplemental income as the 8 court deems equitable,

9 b. the average of the gross monthly income for the time
10 actually employed during the previous three (3) years,

11 c. the minimum wage paid for a forty-hour week, or 12 d. gross monthly income imputed as set forth in 13 subsection D of this section.

14 2. If a parent is permanently physically or mentally 15 incapacitated, the child support obligation shall be computed on the 16 basis of actual monthly gross income.

17 D. Imputed income.

18 1. Instead of using the actual or average income of a parent, 19 the court may impute gross income to a parent under the provisions 20 of this section if equitable.

21 2. The following factors may be considered by the court when 22 making a determination of willful and voluntary underemployment or 23 unemployment:

24

- 1 a. whether a parent has been determined by the court to 2 be willfully or voluntarily underemployed or 3 unemployed, including whether unemployment or 4 underemployment for the purpose of pursuing additional 5 training or education is reasonable in light of the 6 obligation of the parent to support his or her 7 children and, to this end, whether the training or 8 education will ultimately benefit the child in the 9 case immediately under consideration by increasing the 10 parent's level of support for that child in the 11 future,
- 12 b. when there is no reliable evidence of income,
- 13 c. the past and present employment of the parent,
- 14 d. the education, training, and ability to work of the 15 parent,
- 16 e. the lifestyle of the parent, including ownership of 17 valuable assets and resources, whether in the name of 18 the parent or the current spouse of the parent, that 19 appears inappropriate or unreasonable for the income 20 claimed by the parent,
- 21 f. the role of the parent as caretaker of a handicapped 22 or seriously ill child of that parent, or any other 23 handicapped or seriously ill relative for whom that 24 parent has assumed the role of caretaker which

1 eliminates or substantially reduces the ability of the 2 parent to work outside the home, and the need of that 3 parent to continue in that role in the future, or 4 g. any additional factors deemed relevant to the 5 particular circumstances of the case.

6 E. Self-employment income.

7 1. Income from self-employment includes income from, but not 8 limited to, business operations, work as an independent contractor 9 or consultant, sales of goods or services, and rental properties, 10 less ordinary and reasonable expenses necessary to produce such 11 income.

12 2. A determination of business income for tax purposes shall 13 not control for purposes of determining a child support obligation.
14 Amounts allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for accelerated 15 depreciation or investment tax credits shall not be considered 16 reasonable expenses.

17 3. The district or administrative court shall deduct from self-18 employment gross income an amount equal to the employer contribution 19 for F.I.C.A. tax which an employer would withhold from an employee's 20 earnings on an equivalent gross income amount.

21 F. Fringe benefits.

22 1. Fringe benefits for inclusion as income or in-kind 23 remuneration received by a parent in the course of employment, or 24

1 operation of a trade or business, shall be counted as income if they 2 significantly reduce personal living expenses.

3 2. Such fringe benefits might include, but are not limited to,
4 company car, housing, or room and board.

5 3. Basic Allowance for Housing, Basic Allowance for 6 Subsistence, and Variable Housing Allowances for service members are 7 considered income for the purposes of determining child support.

8 4. Fringe benefits do not include employee benefits that are 9 typically added to the salary, wage, or other compensation that a 10 parent may receive as a standard added benefit, such as employer 11 contributions to portions of health insurance premiums or employer 12 contributions to a retirement or pension plan.

13 G. Social Security Title II benefits.

14 1. Social Security Title II benefits received by a child shall 15 be included as income to the parent on whose account the benefit of 16 the child is drawn and applied against the support obligation 17 ordered to be paid by that parent. If the benefit of the child is 18 drawn from the disability of the child, the benefit of the child is 19 not added to the income of either parent and not deducted from the 20 obligation of either parent.

21 2. Child support greater than social security benefit.

22 If the child support award due after calculating the child
23 support guidelines is greater than the social security benefit 24 received on behalf of the child, the obligor shall be required to 1 pay the amount exceeding the social security benefit as part of the 2 child support award in the case.

3 3. Child support equal to or less than social security 4 benefits.

5 a. If the child support award due after calculating the 6 child support guidelines is less than or equal to the 7 social security benefit received on behalf of the 8 child, the child support obligation of that parent is 9 met and no additional child support amount must be 10 paid by that parent.

11 b. Any social security benefit amounts which are greater 12 than the support ordered by the court shall be 13 retained by the caretaker for the benefit of the child 14 and shall not be used as a reason for decreasing the 15 child support order or reducing arrearages.

16 c. The child support computation form shall include a 17 notation regarding the use of social security benefits 18 as offset.

19 4. a. Calculation of child support as provided in subsection 20 F of this section shall be effective no earlier than 21 the date on which the motion to modify was filed.

22 b. The court may determine if, under the circumstances of 23 the case, it is appropriate to credit social security 24 benefits paid to the custodial person prior to a

1 modification of child support against the past-due 2 child support obligation of the noncustodial parent.

3 c. The noncustodial parent shall not receive credit for 4 any social security benefits paid directly to the 5 child.

6 d. Any credit granted by the court pursuant to 7 subparagraph b of this paragraph shall be limited to 8 the time period during which the social security 9 benefit was paid, or the time period covered by a lump 10 sum for past social security benefits.

11 H. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a portion of 12 Combat-Related Special Compensation (CRSC) shall be separate 13 property, not divisible as a marital asset nor as community 14 property, if a specific dollar amount of CRSC can be proven by the 15 service member as compensation paid for combat-related loss of limb 16 or loss of bodily function.

17 1. To qualify as separate property, the CRSC shall be defined 18 as separate compensation paid for the sole purpose of combat-related 19 loss of limb or loss of bodily function.

20 2. An injury shall be deemed combat-related if such injury was:

21 a. attributable to an injury for which the member was 22 awarded the Purple Heart,

23 b. incurred as a direct result of armed conflict, or 24

1 c. sustained through an instrumentality of war while 2 serving in a combat theater.

3 3. For purposes of identifying CRSC, it is the sole 4 responsibility of the service member to prove with competent 5 evidence what amount of his or her disability compensation is CRSC.
6 Competent evidence shall include, but is not limited to:

7 a. a DD-214 or NGB-22 or similar statement of service 8 which identifies the combat theater in which the 9 member served,

10 b. a Bureau of Veterans Administration ("BVA" or "VA")
11 Award letter which sets for the specific combat-12 related loss of limb or loss of bodily function, and 13 the specific amount of CRSC paid for such injuries, 14 and

15 c. a 1099 from the BVA or VA which details the specific 16 amount of CRSC for combat-related loss of limb or loss 17 of bodily function.

18 SECTION 7. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 134, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 Section 134. A. In any divorce decree which provides for 21 periodic alimony payments, the court shall plainly state, at the 22 time of entering the original decree, the dollar amount of all or a
23 portion of each payment which is designated as support and the 24 dollar amount of all or a portion of the payment which is a payment

1 pertaining to a division of property. The court shall specify in
2 the decree that the payments pertaining to a division of property
3 shall continue until completed. Payments pertaining to a division
4 of property are irrevocable and not subject to subsequent
5 modification by the court making the award. An order for the 6 payment of money pursuant to a divorce decree, whether designated as 7 support or designated as pertaining to a division of property shall 8 not be a lien against the real property of the person ordered to 9 make such payments unless the court order specifically provides for 10 a lien on real property. An arrearage in payments of support
11 reduced to a judgment may be a lien against the real property of the 12 person ordered to make such payments. In no event shall an award of 13 alimony payments, whether designated for support or for property
14 division, be based on CRSC as defined in paragraph 1 of subsection H 15 of Section 118B of this title.

16 B. The court shall also provide in the divorce decree that upon
17 the death or remarriage of the recipient, the payments for support, 18 if not already accrued, shall terminate. The court shall order the 19 judgment for the payment of support to be terminated, and the lien
20 released upon the presentation of proper proof of death of the 21 recipient unless a proper claim is made for any amount of past-due
22 support payments by an executor, administrator, or heir within 23 ninety (90) days from the date of death of the recipient. Upon
24 proper application the court shall order payment of support

1 terminated and the lien discharged after remarriage of the
2 recipient, unless the recipient can make a proper showing that some
3 amount of support is still needed and that circumstances have not
4 rendered payment of the same inequitable, provided the recipient
5 commences an action for such determination, within ninety (90) days
6 of the date of such remarriage.

7 C. The voluntary cohabitation of a former spouse with a member
8 of the opposite sex shall be a ground to modify provisions of a
9 final judgment or order for alimony as support. If voluntary
10 cohabitation is alleged in a motion to modify the payment of 11 support, the court shall have jurisdiction to reduce or terminate
12 future support payments upon proof of substantial change of 13 circumstances of either party to the divorce relating to need for 14 support or ability to support. As used in this subsection, the term
15 cohabitation means the dwelling together continuously and habitually 16 of a man and a woman who are in a private conjugal relationship not 17 solemnized as a marriage according to law, or not necessarily
18 meeting all the standards of a common-law marriage. The petitioner
19 shall make application for modification and shall follow
20 notification procedures used in other divorce decree modification
21 actions. The court that entered the divorce decree shall have 22 jurisdiction over the modification application.

23 D. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C of this 24 section, the provisions of any divorce decree pertaining to the

1 payment of alimony as support may be modified upon proof of changed
2 circumstances relating to the need for support or ability to support
3 which are substantial and continuing so as to make the terms of the 4 decree unreasonable to either party. Modification by the court of 5 any divorce decree pertaining to the payment of alimony as support, 6 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, may extend to the 7 terms of the payments and to the total amount awarded; provided
8 however, such modification shall only have prospective application.

9 E. Pursuant to the federal Uniformed Services Former Spouses'
10 Protection Act, 10 U.S.C., Section 1408, a court may treat
11 disposable retired or retainer pay payable to a military member
12 either as property solely of the member or as property of the member
13 and the spouse of the member. If a state court determines that the 14 disposable retired or retainer pay of a military member is marital 15 property, the court shall award an amount consistent with the rank, 16 pay grade, and time of service of the member at the time of 17 separation.

18 F. The provisions of subsection D of this section shall have 19 retrospective and prospective application with regards to
20 modifications for the purpose of obtaining support or payments
21 pertaining to a division of property on divorce decrees which become 22 final after June 26, 1981. There shall be a two-year statute of 23 limitations, beginning on the date of the final divorce decree, for 24 a party to apply for division of disposable retired or retainer pay.

1 G. The provisions of subsections C and D of this section shall 2 have retrospective and prospective application with regards to 3 modifications of the provisions of a final judgment or order for 4 alimony as support, or of a divorce decree pertaining to the payment
5 of alimony as support, regardless of the date that the order,
6 judgment, or decree was entered.

7 SECTION 8. This act shall become effective November 1, 2012.
