8 O.S. 2001, Section 990A, as amended by Section 6, 9 Chapter 468, O.S.L. 2002, and Section 17, Chapter 10 228, O.S.L. 2009 (12 O.S. Supp. 2010, Sections 990A and 2056), which relate to appeal and summary judgment; modifying requirements for certain service; and providing an effective date.

11
12 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

13 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2001, Section 990A, as 14 amended by Section 6, Chapter 468, O.S.L. 2002 (12 O.S. Supp. 2010, 15 Section 990A), is amended to read as follows:

16 Section 990A. A. An appeal to the Supreme Court of Oklahoma, 17 if taken, must be commenced by filing a petition in error with the 18 Clerk of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma within thirty (30) days from 19 the date a judgment, decree, or appealable order prepared in 20 conformance with Section 696.3 of this title is filed with the clerk
21 of the trial court. If the appellant did not prepare the judgment, 22 decree, or appealable order, and Section 696.2 of this title 23 required a copy of the judgment, decree, or appealable order to be 24 ~~mailed to~~ served upon the appellant, and the court records do not

1 reflect the ~~mailing~~ service of a copy of the judgment, decree, or 2 appealable order to the appellant within three (3) days, exclusive 3 of weekends and holidays, after the filing of the judgment, decree, 4 or appealable order, the petition in error may be filed within 5 thirty (30) days after the earliest date on which the court records 6 show that a copy of the judgment, decree, or appealable order was 7 ~~mailed to~~ served upon the appellant.

8 B. The filing of the petition in error may be accomplished
9 either by delivery or mailing by certified or first-class mail, 10 postage prepaid, to the Clerk of the Supreme Court. The date of 11 filing or the date of mailing, as shown by the postmark affixed by 12 the post office or other proof from the post office of the date of 13 mailing, shall constitute the date of filing of the petition in 14 error. If there is no proof from the post office of the date of 15 mailing, the date of receipt by the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall 16 constitute the date of filing of the petition in error.

17 C. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule, which shall have 18 the force of statute, and be in furtherance of this method of 19 appeal:

- 20 1. For the filing of cross-appeals;
- 21 2. The procedure to be followed by the trial courts or 22 tribunals in the preparation and authentication of transcripts and 23 records in cases appealed under this act; and 24

1        3. The procedure to be followed for the completion and 2 submission of the appeal taken hereunder.

3        D. In all cases the record on appeal shall be complete and 4 ready for filing in the Supreme Court within the time prescribed by 5 rule.

6        E. Except for the filing of a petition in error as provided 7 herein, all steps in perfecting an appeal are not jurisdictional.

8        F. 1. If a petition in error is filed before the time
9 prescribed in this section, it shall be dismissed as premature; 10 however, if the time to commence the appeal accrues before the 11 appeal is dismissed, the appellant may file a supplemental petition 12 in error, without the payment of any additional costs. Such 13 supplemental petition in error shall state when the time for 14 commencing the appeal began and shall set out all matters which have 15 occurred since the filing of the original petition in error and 16 which should be included in a timely petition in error. When a 17 proper supplemental petition in error is filed, the appeal shall not 18 be dismissed on the ground that it was premature.

19        2. If an appeal is dismissed on the ground that it was 20 premature, the appellant may file a new petition in error within the 21 time prescribed in this section for filing petitions in error or 22 within thirty (30) days after notice is mailed to the parties which 23 states that the appeal was dismissed on the ground that it was 24 premature, whichever date is later. A notice that an appeal was

1 dismissed on the ground that it was premature shall include the date
2 of mailing and the ground for dismissal.

3 G. 1. No designation of record shall be accepted by the 4 district court clerk for filing unless it contains one of the 5 following:

6 a. where a transcript is designated: A signed
7 acknowledgment from the court reporter who reported
8 evidence in the case indicating receipt of the request 9 for transcript, the date received, and the amount of 10 deposit received, if applicable, in substantially the 11 following form: I, _____, court reporter for the 12 above styled case, do hereby acknowledge this request 13 for transcript on this ____ day of ____, 20__, and have 14 received a deposit in the sum of $____., or 15 b. where a transcript is not designated: A signed 16 statement by the attorney preparing the designation of 17 record stating that a transcript has not been ordered 18 and a brief explanation why, in substantially the 19 following form: I, _____, attorney for the 20 appellant, hereby state that I have not ordered a 21 transcript because:

- 22 (1) a transcript is not necessary for this appeal, or 23 (2) no stenographic reporting was made.

24

1        2. This section shall not apply to counter-designations of 2 record filed by appellees.

3        SECTION 2.        AMENDATORY        Section 17, Chapter 228, O.S.L.
4 2009 (12 O.S. Supp. 2010, Section 2056), is amended to read as 5 follows:

6        Section 2056. A. BY A CLAIMING PARTY. A party claiming relief
7 may move, with or without supporting affidavits, for summary
8 judgment on all or part of the claim. The motion may be filed at 9 any time after twenty (20) days have passed from commencement of the 10 action or the opposing party serves a motion for summary judgment.

11        B. BY A DEFENDING PARTY. A party against whom relief is sought 12 may move at any time, with or without supporting affidavits, for 13 summary judgment on all or part of the claim.

14        C. ~~SERVING THE MOTION AND PROCEEDINGS. The motion must be~~ 15 ~~served at least ten (10) days before the day set for the hearing.~~
16 ~~An opposing party may serve opposing affidavits before the hearing~~ 17 ~~day.~~ The judgment sought should be rendered if the pleadings, the 18 discovery and disclosure materials on file, and any affidavits show 19 that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the 20 movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

21        D. CASE NOT FULLY ADJUDICATED ON THE MOTION. If summary
22 judgment is not rendered on the whole action, the court should, to 23 the extent practicable, determine what material facts are not 24 genuinely at issue. The court should so determine by examining the 1 pleadings and evidence before it and by interrogating the attorneys.

2 It should then issue an order specifying what facts, including items
3 of damages or other relief, are not genuinely at issue. The facts 4 so specified must be treated as established in the action. An 5 interlocutory summary judgment may be rendered on liability alone, 6 even if there is a genuine issue on the amount of damages.

7 E. AFFIDAVITS AND FURTHER TESTIMONY. A supporting or opposing 8 affidavit must be made on personal knowledge, set out facts that 9 would be admissible in evidence, and show that the affiant is 10 competent to testify on the matters stated. If a paper or part of a 11 paper is referred to in an affidavit, a sworn or certified copy must 12 be attached to or served with the affidavit. The court may permit
13 an affidavit to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers 14 to interrogatories, or additional affidavits. When a motion for 15 summary judgment is properly made and supported, an opposing party 16 may not rely merely on allegations or denials in its own pleading; 17 rather, its response must, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in 18 this rule, set out specific facts showing a genuine issue for trial.
19 If the opposing party does not so respond, summary judgment should, 20 if appropriate, be entered against that party.

21 F. WHEN AFFIDAVITS ARE UNAVAILABLE. If a party opposing the 22 motion shows by affidavit that, for specified reasons, it cannot 23 present facts essential to justify its opposition, the court may 24 deny the motion, order a continuance to enable affidavits to be

1 obtained, depositions to be taken, or other discovery to be 2 undertaken or issue any other just order.

3 G. AFFIDAVITS SUBMITTED IN BAD FAITH. If satisfied that an 4 affidavit under this rule is submitted in bad faith or solely for 5 delay, the court must order the submitting party to pay the other 6 party the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, it incurred 7 as a result. An offending party or attorney may also be held in 8 contempt.

9 SECTION 3. This act shall become effective November 1, 2011.
