An Act relating to emergency services; amending 63 O.S. 2011, Section 2815.1, which relates to the confidentiality and liability for use of nine-one-one emergency telephone service information; requiring a governing body to notify and provide certain addresses to a secretary of the county election board; specifying which secretaries shall be provided notification; setting time period for providing notification; and modifying certain liability limitations.

SUBJECT: Nine-one-one emergency telephone service information

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 63 O.S. 2011, Section 2815.1, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2815.1 A. Nine-one-one emergency telephone service information may be used by a public law enforcement or public health agency for the purpose of placing outgoing emergency calls that notify the public of an emergency or provide to the public information relative to an emergency.

B. Nine-one-one emergency telephone service information shall be confidential. Any public law enforcement or public health agency that uses nine-one-one emergency telephone service information for the purposes set forth in subsection A of this section shall establish methods and procedures that ensure the confidentiality of the information.

C. Any governing body as defined in Section 2815 of this title providing for the operation of emergency telephone service or nine-one-one wireless emergency telephone service shall notify the secretary of a county election board if a service user who is a resident of the county has been assigned a new nine-one-one emergency address or if the nine-one-one emergency address of a service user who is a resident in that county has changed and shall provide the new or updated address to the secretary for entry into the voter registration database for the county. Notifications shall be provided to any secretary of a county election board of any county of which all or part of the county is located within the nine-one-one service area. The notification shall be made to the secretary within ninety (90) days of the assignment of the address or the change in the address.

D. For purposes of this section "nine-one-one emergency telephone service information" shall mean the name, address and telephone number of a service user of a local exchange telephone company.

~~D.~~ E. No governing body or person providing service pursuant to this section shall be liable for using nine-one-one emergency telephone service information, or providing such information to any public law enforcement ~~or~~, public health agency or secretary of a county election board, in accordance with subsection B or C of this section.
