GENERAL ORDER

HB 2353 by Kouplen of the House and Justice of the Senate was read and considered.

Representative Reynolds requested a ruling of the Presiding Officer as to whether HB 2353 was in order for consideration because no fiscal summary was available.

The Presiding Officer ruled that questions arising under House Rule 7.11, paragraph (a) pertaining to necessity of an accompanying fiscal summary shall be determined on the basis of the informed opinion of the Chair of the House Appropriations and Budget Committee as established for floor amendments by House Precedent 8.10-2 (2009).

The Presiding Officer referred the question of whether HB 2353 would have a fiscal impact to the Appropriations and Budget Chair.

The Appropriations and Budget Chair stated that a fiscal impact statement was available on the bill and that no fiscal impact would arise from passage of the measure.

Representative Reynolds attempted to appeal the ruling of the Chair but failed to receive the required 15 seconds.

Representative Kouplen moved that HB 2353 be advanced from General Order, which motion was declared adopted.
