

BILL SUMMARY
1st Session of the 54th Legislature

Bill No.:	HB 1868
Version:	CS
Request Number:	7213
Author:	Billy
Date:	3/4/2013
Impact:	No impact

Research Analysis

The measure modifies the definition of extreme fire danger to include when no significant precipitation, rather than one half inch, is forecast for the next three days and allows an extreme fire danger to be declared when one factor is met rather than all four listed in statute.
