Fiscal Analysis

The measure modifies definitions as applied to the Oklahoma Quality Events Incentive Act and also modifies certain time allowances for the participation in the program by local communities. The essence of the program and the process for the incentives as it relates to incremental income as determined by the tax Commission are not altered. No revenue impact is anticipated.

Prepared By: Mark Tygret

Other Considerations

The provisions may result in expanded opportunities for communities to attract qualified events, which could result in net benefits to the state and the participating communities.
