Research Analysis

The committee substitute for HB 2195 prohibits the legislature from authorizing a state entity to incur obligations that would exceed twenty-eight percent of the certification by the State Board of Equalization. The measure exempts an entity that has the authority to impose a fee or other charge which is used to pay off any excess obligation not covered by the annual appropriation. The measure also exempts the Master Lease Program. Finally, the measure prohibits modification of a state-imposed tax levy.
