Research Analysis

SB1923 amends the Service Warranty Act. It adds definitions for “motor vehicle ancillary service,” for “motor vehicle ancillary protection product,” and for “road hazard.” It changes the definition of a service warranty to include those motor vehicle ancillary services. The measure also clarifies statutory language.

The measure also amends the Vehicle Protection Product Act. It clarifies statutory language and that service contract providers licensed under the amended Service Warranty Act are not subject to the requirements of the Vehicle Protection Product Act.
