Research Analysis

SB 197 provides that the CLEET approved training course for police chief administration be developed by the Oklahoma Chiefs of Police Association. The measure provides that a chief of police who fails to complete the training course will have their CLEET certification revoked. Provides that the training qualifications course requirements do not apply to a chief of police who assumed duties prior to November 1, 2006. All municipal police departments must adopt and publish policies that address safety and liability issues. A municipality not in compliance may seek additional time to come into compliance.
