A Concurrent Resolution proclaiming February 8 to February 14 as Oklahoma Homeschool Week; recognizing the 30th Anniversary of the Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day event; and directing distribution.

1           WHEREAS, few events have defined the identity of home education
2 in the State of Oklahoma as distinctly or as powerfully as the 3 Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day event; and

4           WHEREAS, Tuesday, February 10, 2015, will be the 30th Oklahoma
5 Home Educators' Capitol Day event; and

6           WHEREAS, the Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day event has 7 transformed the understanding of the home educator of civic 8 responsibility, educational equality and the importance of building 9 relationships with our elected officials; and

10           WHEREAS, the Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day event has 11 raised awareness of alternate and viable forms of education and 12 demonstrated that families who choose this form of education are 13 serious about their freedom; and

14           WHEREAS, after thirty years, home educators can still celebrate 15 this freedom and renew their commitment to continue the homeschool 16 legacy for future generations; and

17           WHEREAS, through the lens of history the progress of the past 18 thirty years may seem insignificant; however, home educators can 19 remember their triumphs of defeating unnecessary or burdensome
20 legislation and remember the true victories which are the 21 relationships that have been forged between legislators and 22 homeschool constituents; and

23           WHEREAS, the Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day event provides 24 a backdrop for remembering those pioneers who forged the way when

1 homeschooling was - even though protected by our Constitution - not 2 a readily accepted form of education and to express gratitude to 3 those who paved the way, suffering ridicule, scorn and persecution
4 while leaving footprints in the halls of the State Capitol defending 5 their right to educate their children by "other means", and who did 6 so in the face of bigotry, fear and unyielding opposition from 7 entrenched interests. The courage of those pioneers stirs and moves 8 all home educators to remain vigilant; and

9 WHEREAS, as the longest-running and most effective homeschool
10 Capitol Day in the nation, the Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol Day 11 event allows all to reflect on the past thirty years and the 12 progress that has been made in homeschooling and to acknowledge that 13 the home educator's journey is not complete; and

14 WHEREAS, the theme for the 30th Oklahoma Home Educators' Capitol
15 Day event is "Continue the Legacy" which will remind home educators 16 to never forget that freedom does not come easily, but with 17 determination and vigilance, those who love their freedom can 18 preserve it.

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
20 OF THE 1ST SESSION OF THE 55TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE, THE SENATE
21 CONCURRING THEREIN:

22 THAT the Oklahoma Legislature hereby proclaims February 8 to 23 February 14, 2015, as "Oklahoma Homeschool Week" in the State of 24 Oklahoma.
