

1           2. Has a good-faith belief that forcible entry into the motor 2 vehicle is necessary because the child is in imminent danger of 3 suffering harm if not immediately removed from the motor vehicle
4 and, based upon the circumstances known to the person at the time,
5 the belief is a reasonable one;

6           3. Has contacted the local law enforcement agency, the fire
7 department or the 911 emergency telephone service prior to forcibly
8 entering the motor vehicle;

9           4. Places a notice on the motor vehicle windshield with the 10 person's contact information, the reason the entry was made, the 11 location of the child and that the authorities have been notified;

12           5. Remains with the child in a safe location, out of the 13 elements but reasonably close to the motor vehicle, until law 14 enforcement, fire or other emergency responder arrives; and 15           6. Used no more force to enter the motor vehicle and remove the 16 child from the motor vehicle than is necessary under the 17 circumstances.

18           B. Nothing in this act shall affect the person's civil 19 liability if the person attempts to render aid to the child in 20 addition to what is authorized by this act.

21           SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2015.
