

An Act relating to children; authorizing pilot program for children at high risk of entering the juvenile justice system; allowing school district or individual school to establish program; listing program requirements; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.