

An Act relating to insurance; requiring certain insurance coverage to provide certain retention percentage; directing the Insurance Commissioner to develop form; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.