

An Act relating to tax administration; limiting number of times a taxpayer may participate in specified program; authorizing Oklahoma Tax Commission to waive limit under specified conditions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.