

An Act relating to health care; prohibiting insurers from excluding certain entities; providing definitions; providing certain construction; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.